Springfield, IL - Representative Jed Davis reflects on roughly the past two months in office, suggesting it's time we talk truth in Springfield. This release highlights his top three most shocking discoveries.

- 1) Statements by Fellow Republicans: "I have three great examples, all spoken by fellow republicans around Springfield. 1) Voting to double the gas tax was my best vote. 2) Lots of great initiatives from our Governor. 3) Go ahead, take the hard votes, the lobbyists will protect you." Representative Davis continued, "So we should increase taxes, push our state's spend spend spend agenda, and side with lobbyists over constituents. Got it, thanks but no thanks. Now these comments were only from a few, so I'm holding onto hope!"
- 2) Nothing Starts on Time: Representative Davis reflects, "If we start session 20 minutes late, we're on time. We'll often sit 40 to 50 minutes, waiting for session to actually start. Republicans complain, but here's the kicker. Republicans held caucus yesterday, dismissing at 2:50 pm, knowing six committees were scheduled for 2:00 pm starts. So, we held the entire system hostage for 50 minutes, making us no better. It's all extremely frustrating."
- 3) Beyond Blessed: "Everyone always asks, how do you like Springfield, probably expecting me to answer with anger or angst. I actually love every second." Representative Davis continued, "I'm beyond blessed to be here and so grateful to represent the 75th. It's definitely an uphill challenge, but our communities and families are well worth the daily climb!"
